Reflections

January 2012

This year, TIC is ringing in the New Year with the theme: Visualize our world through Divine Connection.....with curiosity.

Webster defines "curiosity" as the desire to know new things. As we start the New Year, let your Divine self be curious about life. As we start setting new goals, we can stimulate curiosity through divine connection by allowing ourselves to:

- Keep an open mind.
- Appreciate all the opportunities in your life.
- Ask questions that stimulate creative ideas.
- See new experiences as an adventure.
- See learning as fun and interesting.
- Read uplifting books and materials.
- Take a class that raises your awareness and "rocks" your Divine Self.

Many new courses are starting up in January at T.I.C. including "Inner Sensitivity", "Self Mastery" and "Inspired Self Leadership". I know I plan to take one of these courses to keep my mind curious. So how fun is it to let your Divine Connection be curious as you go forth into the New Year allowing your Divine Self to experience new and fun adventures??!!

Love, Christy
